SAN BERNARDINO- During the January 27 board meeting, the Board of Supervisors approved increases in funding to some agencies to provide Elderly Nutrition Program Services, increasing the aggregate contract amount by $757, 746.

The increases that went into effect on February 1, 2015, give an additional $17, 445 to the program in the Big Bear Valley Recreation and Park District as well an additional $19, 446 to the program in Crest Forest Senior Citizens Club. The approval is set to benefit about 600 seniors in those areas.

"I am proud the board has continued their commitment to protect the programs that provide essential services to our seniors," stated Supervisor Ramos.
